

higher institute of engineering in advanced systems and networks (esisar) spaces for learning + valence 1997 program

creation of research laboratories and technological platforms for electronics, automation, physics and data processing, and signal treatment. creation of offices for instruction and administration.

td rooms, work cubicles, amphitheatre, cafeteria, multi-media center, service offices, etc.

governing authority - minister of higher education and research governing authority

minister of higher education and research delegate governing authority dde 26

mission

basic mission + execution

project manager

lipsky+rollet architects with : bet batiserf (structure), bet ascot (fluids), bet choulet (electricity and data networks), bureau michel forgue (économie)

total cost

8 840 000 euros net vat

surface area

2 800 sqm + 2 200 sqm + 2 500 sqm

