lipsky+rollet
architecture et environnement

india house, cité internationale

housing + paris 2013

program

independant building including 72 rooms and comon spaces in order to increase the capacity of students, researchers and professors accomodation of the existing maison de l'inde in the southeast part of the cité internationale universitaire de paris

governing authority

maison de l'inde

mission

mission de base + mobilier

project manager

lipsky + rollet architectes with : c&e ingénierie (structure), gaujard technologies (wood structure), inex (fluids) exndo(hqe), bureau michel forgue (economy)

total cost

4 300 000 €

surface area

2 861 sqm shon

photovoltaic panels for hot water surface

20 m²

delivery

2013

