

"une maison pour demain " salon habiter 88
housing + paris 1988

program

prototype of the "house of the future" using home automation, realized for the salon habiter 88 at the grande halle of the villette, paris

governing authority

valorisation de l'innovation et de l'aménagement (via)

project manager

florence lipsky and pascal rollet

partners

craterre, students of grenoble architecture school, the companies ferrari, vio, mti, smcv, siropex, franciaflex.

sponsor

"les 3 suisses" and thier collection of starck furniture

total cost

155 590 euros net vat

surface area

100 sqm

delivery

1988

